Meeting Minutes for 10/13/2010

Young Conservatives of Texas

Texas Tech Chapter

- Jeff highlighted on how big a difference personal contact makes
- Election Watch Party: No time or location was determined. The usual core members voiced interest
- Charity Bandits – possible upcoming event to demonstrate that government taxation is not charity
- The Animal Rights BBQ has been postponed
- Techsans for Concealed Carry on Campus (TCCC) will be having a shooting party soon, YCT will join
- Concealed Carry on Campus has been made YCT's #1 legislative priority, asked members to please support TCCC
- YCT State Convention will be at the end of February in Dallas and should cost $75. We are the biggest chapter, so we want a lot of people to attend
- Concern with voter education – YCT wants to hand out voter handbooks in the dorms
- Prior to this meeting, Jeff attended the SGA SORC meeting:
  - SGA will be putting concealed carry on the Homecoming ballot and whatever the result is how Texas Tech will lobby in Austin next session
  - October 20th will be a town hall meeting discussing concealed carry on campus
- Jeff wants members to plan to become more involved with campus issues: we should be a strong-arm
- Jeff informed members of committees they can join: membership, knowledge, and events
