Meeting Brief

Meeting opened at 7:04 PM

Jeff handed the meeting over to Russell

-No new members were present, so we did not give an introduction of the organization

Texas House Speaker – Jeff Frazier

- YCT has endorsed Ken Paxton for the speakership, not the incumbent, Speaker Strauss.
- Ken Paxton is our top rated representative
- Our big election win means nothing if we have a liberal speaker
- The vote for the speakership is on January 11
- Paxton has turned to YCT as a key source of support
- In Texas, almost all legislative action is dictated by the Speaker
- Talk to people back home, not just here at Tech

Concealed Carry event

- Russell opened the floor up for suggestions
- Convicts against Concealed Carry event – Dec. 1 10am-2pm in the Free Speech Zone
- TCCC report: Rustic Range will be the location for the CHL training and firearms practice will take place prior to training

BA Lab Petition

- Estimated $3 million for a lab; art will cost $1.4 million
- Biggest goal is to educate people about the issue
- We voted to get started on this issue this semester and continue with it next semester

Next Semester

- Membership Drive & maintaining membership

Meeting Minutes (11/17/2010)

Young Conservatives of Texas

Texas Tech Chapter

- Meeting time was discussed, but Wednesday was agreed to be the best day for meetings
- Ryan Scott recommended we have more social events, having an intramural team(s) was suggested

Greek Organization Liaison

- Try to tap into the school largest organization and make connections
- Look into speaking before chapter meetings
- Ryan Scott brought up the point that it will be difficult to get them involved in our organization because they are so busy with Greek

End-of-the-Year Banquet

- Tentative date – Dec. 2, 7-9PM in the Matador Lounge
- Logistics committee will organize this

Leadership Roundtable

- Dec. 1 8-9PM following the general meeting
- Attendance is required for all officers and committee members (dress is professional, as a picture will be taken)
- General members are welcome to attend, dress as normal

YCT State Convention

- Feb. 18-20 in Dallas
- The fee will be between $75-100
- We expect to have a group dinner Friday night which will cost approximately $25-50 per person
- Since we are the state's largest chapter, we should have the most people there
- Always featured are great speakers and panelists

SORC Meeting attended by Jeff

- Tech Day at the Capitol – Nov. 29th deadline, application in the SGA office
- Student Regent – Dec. 3 deadline, application in the SGA office
